

Drea Leed

214 S. Shaffer St
Springfield, OH 45506 USA

937.322.7548
drealeed2@yahoo.com

Education

1990-1994: Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology and Music from Indiana University

Presentations

"Gods, Nymphs and Irishmen: Symbolism & Meaning in Masque Costume." International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI, 2003

"Textile Cutting and Cleaning in the Nurnberger Kunstbuch." International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI, 2001

"Dye Recipes from the Innsbruck Manuscript", Medieval Forum, Plymouth, NH, 2001

"Working Women's Dress in Sixteenth Century Flanders". International Congress on Medieval Studies, Kalamazoo, MI, 1999

I have also presented several lectures, classes, seminars and workshops on various aspects of fifteenth and sixteenth century dress to historical societies, theater costumers, re-enactment groups, and other popular audiences. 1997-2003

Publications

"Cloistered Arts: Textile Cutting and Cleaning in a Fifteenth Century Nunnery." DISTAFF Publications in Costume & Textile History. Boydell & Brewer Press, 2004 (forthcoming).

"Elizabeth I, Fashion's Queen." Renaissance Magazine, Issue 29, Spring 2003

The Well Dress'd Peasant: Sixteenth Century Workingwomens Dress. Costume & Dressmaker Press, ©2000

Elizabethan Underpinnings for Women, Compleat Anachronist Press, ©1997

Areas of Research

Sixteenth century wardrobe accounts and tailor's bills

Medieval and renaissance dye recipes and dyeing technology

Sixteenth and early seventeenth century Masque and Revels costume

Clothing in Flemish Genre art

Memberships

Member of the Costume Society of America & the Costume Society of Great Britain

Additional Activities

Webmaster and administrator of the Elizabethan Costume Page (<http://costume.dm.net/>). Several of my articles are available on this site.

References

Dr. Gale Owen-Crocker
Dept of English Language & Literature
University of Manchester
Manchester M13 9PL
Phone: 161.275.3174
Fax: 161.275.3256
Email: groc@man.ac.uk

Robin Netherton, Co-Founder of DISTAFF
715 Aramis Drive
St. Louis, MO 63141 USA
Phone: 314.439.1222
Fax: 314.439.1333
Email: robin@shell.nightowl.net